

K-Love is providing a great service to our community. They are our only source of contemporary Christian music. How can any other programming provide the uplifting, positive message that K-Love radio provides. They are a valuable resource to our area and many others.